The Perfect Prahran Scenario

The perennial appeal of an inner city Victorian is perfectly captured by this irresistible terrace, where the combination of classical proportions and light filled modern counterparts performs beautifully against a bright north facing backdrop. Two double bedrooms with decorative fire places and feature built in robes beneath original high ceilings convey total comfort and engaging character before the traditional arched hall leads to a central living or dining room. French doors to an effective light court accompany this versatile space while northern light from the generous courtyard fills a separate living/dining area that includes an open-plan kitchen. To the rear, a bright bathroom completes the appealing proportions of a home significantly enhanced by sunny outdoor entertaining, a cafe awning, mains gas BBQ. Proximity to Prahran station, Windsor cafes, Chapel Street and St Kilda Road trams complements a captivating picture.
