Live a vibrant life at DKS

Work, life and play combine in one vibrant cultural precinct. DKS signals the rebirth of Dickson, this meticulously-designed one bedroom near new apartment is a must see. Inspired by Melbourne's eat-streets, DKS will boast al fresco dining areas brimming with energy and life, and high-quality retail offerings will attract treasure-seekers.

Designed with modern living in mind, all the essential amenities will be at residents' fingertips—from markets to medical, cafés to childcare, gyms to green spaces. But DKS is not only about community—it's about connection. Light rail and Dickson Interchange are at DKS's doorstep, linking it effortlessly to the city, northern suburbs and beyond.

Residents reap the benefits of established infrastructure—a library, large supermarket, clubs, schools, nature reserves, parks, public pool, bars and cafés.

DKS's close proximity to the city centre and hotspot of Braddon make it the ideal base for urban adventures—from high street shopping to a cornucopia of food experiences. The University of Canberra, Australian Institute of Sport and GIO Stadium are all within an easy drive; while, to the east, a wealth of nature reserves are begging to be explored.

During summer, Dickson Aquatic Centre offers a shady oasis with three heated pools and barbeque and picnic areas, while community gardens give residents the opportunity to grow organic produce for their home.
