Situated on a large block located in the highly desirable Gungahlin suburb near a playground, and walking distance to the Tram station.

This property is a delightful, spacious four bedroom ensuite home with a separate meals and dining and an additional rumpus room. It has been freshly repainted inside and out with new carpets laid, and presented in pristine condition.

Designed by New Age Architecture, this home offers three separate and generous living areas. As you step inside you are immediately welcomed by an entry area which then flows to a large formal lounge and formal dining. A separate, Archer Canberra very large open family room with an additional meals area flows on from the open plan kitchen to create a spaciousness that impressively highlights the size of this larger four bedroom house. Towards the back of the main living area you'll find another rumpus room and under cover patio area outside.

The bedrooms are all generously sized with built-in-robos, and the master bedroom has a walk-in-robe and ensuite.

Other features includes, plenty of storage cupboards, double lock-up garage with internal access, ducted gas heating and evaporative cooling, and NBN connection for fast internet.

Outside the house you'll find an easy care lawn backyard for both children and family pets to play in. There is also an outdoor covered patio area for outdoor entertaining.

The location provides perfect lifestyle options including a 15 min walk to Gungahlin Marketplace and shops, cafe and restaurants, K-Mart, BIG-W, Woolworths, and Coles. The property is also located close to the tranquil Mulligans Flat bush reserve & Yerrabi Ponds, ideal for walking and hiking. Easy access to Horse Park Drive & the new Majura Parkway. 20mins drive to Canberra CBD.Â
