-[]NOTES FROM THE OWNERS -

Inside you will find premium glassware a wine drinker will love, Robert Welch cutlery, stylish crockery, brand new quality nonstick cookware (pots and pans). I am an enthusiastic cook (well I was before I had a baby) and my kitchen is beautifully equipped including with a top of the range food processor.

Outside offers low maintenance gardens: hedges trimmed by the gardener, all fully reticulated, all that is required is weeding, and some watering over winter if it doesn't rain much during water restriction time. Hoses are provided out front and back. For when sprinklers are allowed on again, these are on a timer.

The complex is extremely friendly and quiet complex with lots of owner occupiers and long term tenants. Immediate neighbours to either side are quiet and friendly (both couples). Good passive surveillance as always residents going for walks up and down driveway etc so feels very safe. You can tell from the way people keep their bikes out the front and they never get stolen! (though I still keep mine out the back! see note further down).
