This lovely period home has retained many charms, including chandeliers, high ceilings, picture rails, beautiful timber fretwork in the entry and lovely established gardens, which offers great street appeal.

The home has beautiful Tas Oak flooring in the entry foyer and hallway, plus the formal dining and sunroom, with the 3 bedrooms and living area all carpeted. There is a wood heater in the living room and then there is the terrific rear deck area, which is accessed from living area and overlooked from the kitchen. An additional bonus is a separate studio at the rear of the garage.

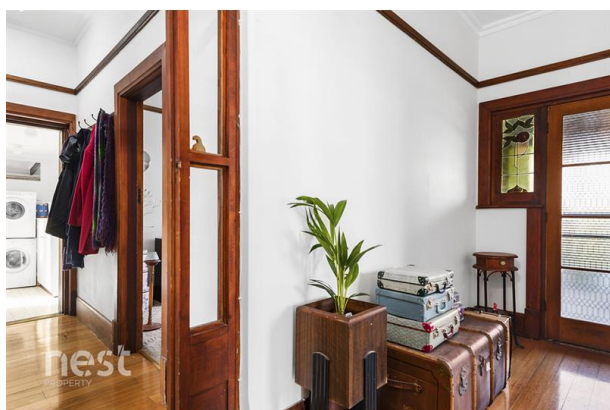

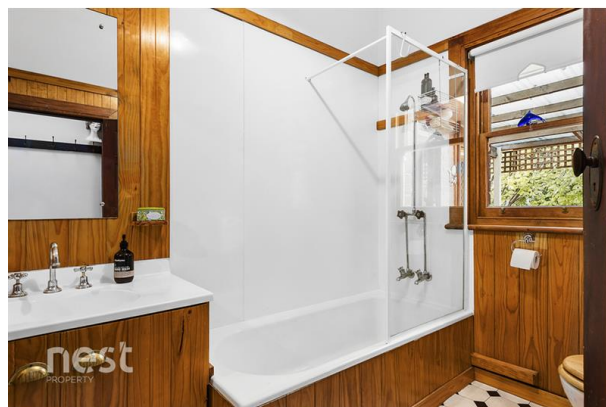

Set at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac and only be minutes away from schools and major shopping centre and very good bus services literally at your front door.

No pets. 12 month lease.
