The amazing home is situated close to local amenities, this home is set in a private Winthrop cul-de-sac. It offers the perfect balance between ample indoor living space and relaxing outdoor entertaining area.

Upon entering you will find a welcoming formal lounge with large window looking out to the front of the yard. Adjacent sits a spacious formal dining space. The main living quarter provides the perfect combination between indoor and outdoor living.

The kitchen and dining area looks out to the massive outdoor patio area through a series of full height windows. Bring the outside in and enjoy the alfresco lifestyle, this home truly makes entertaining a breeze. The kitchen has been modernised with elegant granite benchtops. This well-appointed kitchen has been complemented with a slider as well as walk-in pantry. Situated adjacent is the second family lounge area. The temptation to go outside and dine in the alfresco area will be too hard to ignore. Here you will find the perfect venue for year-round entertaining.

The massive patio area has been finished with timeless limestone paving, it also features timber-lined ceilings, BBQ facilities and an outdoor audio system. This outdoor space looks out onto the resort-inspired swimming pool. The pool boasts a sitting bench, pool cover store, an outdoor shower and is secured by a series of sleek modern glass fencing. The home's spacious master accommodation has a private courtyard, providing a private haven away from the main living areas. The master suite features an ample walk-in robe and leads to the tidy ensuite. Proceed towards the rear of the home and you will find the remaining accommodation. Here situates three further good size bedrooms, each has a large window and built in robes. These rooms share a private sitting area or activity room, and are serviced by the family bathroom.

The home is completed by the chillaxing sitting area in the rear garden, double car garage with drive through access, inside garage storage space, side carport for a third vehicle, reticulation system, ducted vacuuming system and air conditioning throughout. 5 Radden Court is set on a generous 927sqm block. It is located close to local shops, minutes away from the Primary School, Winthrop Village and is within easy drive to the Fiona Stanley Hospital.
