Charming Art Deco style

Filled with natural light and displaying charming highlights of Art Deco styling, this three bedroom home sits pretty as a picture among pristine landscaped gardens on this beautiful tree-lined street. Its peaceful yet ultra-convenient location bolsters the appeal of the home, within walking distance to transport, shopping, parklands and schools, while surrounded by Melbourne's best private colleges.

Lovingly-maintained high decorative ceilings, cornices and picture rails frame the beauty of the home, where a formal lounge (or fourth bedroom) enjoys the cosiness of an open fireplace, and three further bedrooms, two with built-in robes, share a central family bathroom. The bright open plan living/dining glistens from polished timber boards, providing a fully-appointed kitchen with plenty of preparation space including a handy timber-topped breakfast bar. Ducted heating and cooling, split system air conditioning all included. A rear deck among the lush gardens spills from the wide living space to enjoy alfresco entertaining.

A coveted and leafy location just moments from the Monash freeway, providing excellent proximity to trams, buses and Gardiner station, with the popular Gardiner's Creek trails just metres away.
