A Grand Home in South Fremantle - 5 Bedrooms, 2 Living, 2 Bathrooms

Magnificently preserved, carefully restored and sympathetically extended this C1900 home retains all the charm of yesteryear whilst providing all the comforts and demands of modern living.

The previous winners of Heritage Awards from the City of Fremantle this beautiful home offers polished floorboards throughout, five generously sized bedrooms (with built-in robes), two lovely bathrooms and two fabulous sunny family rooms over-looking the lush rear garden. Upstairs captures superb views across South Fremantle to the ocean. This generous, well considered layout provides great flexibility enabling the interchange of living and sleeping spaces as family or seasonal needs dictate.

In the heart of the home a good sized family kitchen and formal dining along with a more casual living environment, affront a bank of windows and French doors that open out to a rear courtyard garden.

The home affords reverse cycle air conditioning, security system, easy care garden and plenty of off street parking for 5 cars with remote gate. This beautiful character residence does not compromise on modern living and is a rare and enticing opportunity
