LEASED BY SHORES

Set amongst the trees, this private sanctuary is the perfect setting for quiet, stress-free living with close connections to nature.

Enjoy the leafy aspects from all corners of the home. From the moment you set foot into this spacious residence you are welcomed to a large formal living dining area fitted with a modern eco-wise wood fire heater and a full length deck.

The living room area flows effortlessly to the heart of the home; a full gourmet kitchen with seamless corian benchtops, dishwasher and generous storage.

The large family home features 5 bedrooms, four of which come with built in wardrobes, allowing for plenty of space to wind down and relax.

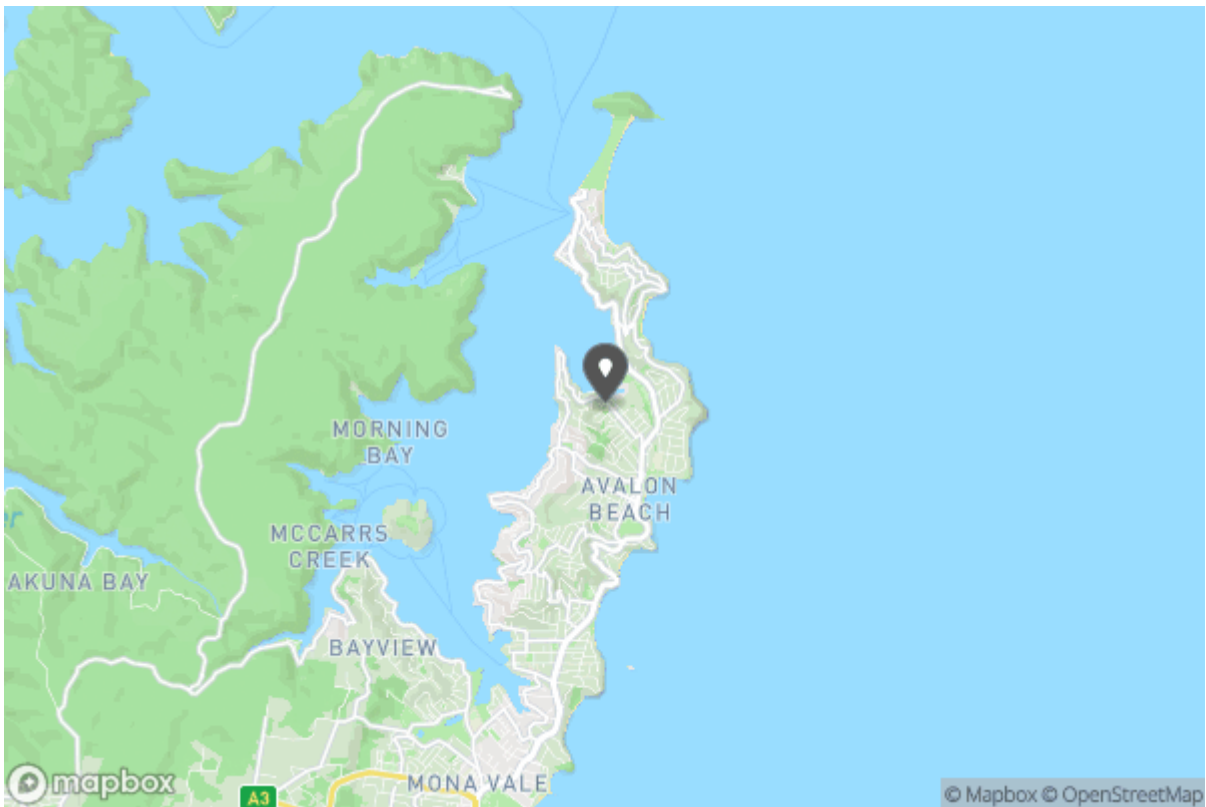

With style and clever design in mind there are two fully renovated modern bathrooms. The upstairs bathroom is perfect for relaxing in with floor heating and lovely forest views by day and/or night thanks to abundant garden lighting. The downstairs bathroom includes double wash basins and a combined, convenient laundry area and has easy external access for those sandy feet returning from the beach.

The rumpus room is a versatile area in the home, be it your home office, media room or teenage retreat-the options are endless here. This room is equipped with a remote operated projector screen, flued gas heating and overlooks the greenery of your own private garden and barbeque area which is fully maintained during your tenancy.
