The kitchen is a retro wonderland, with tiled walls, timber storage and double sink. It's also a great space to look out over the large grassy backyard that slopes up with the natural contour and has a roomy clothesline.

Back inside, two of the three tastefully decorated bedrooms offer escarpment views and all continue the low-maintenance stylish look of the timber floors. The bathroom features retro tiling, a large shower space and bath, plus a separate toilet. The laundry provides direct backyard access.

But the real story here is location – undeniably close to local services and just a short hop to Wollongong itself. To find out more, get in touch with our Dimosons Property Management Team today on 4258 0088.
